

It is sad, that even though you received many objections to this monopoly by broadcast owners, you just summarily dismissed the objections. This is to supposed to be a country run by the people not by the few.